There are now something like 23,000
I. O. O. F. organizations—over 12,000 subordinate lodges, over 5,000 Rebekah lodges, between 2,000 and 3,000 encampments, over 500 cantons, 55 grand encampments and 66 grand lodges.

At the beginning of the year the Odd Fellows' home of Pennsylvania contained sixty aged inmates. During 1902 thirteen were admitted, and by a singular coincidence the same number died during the year.

The Odd Fellows lodge established in Manila has begun work. It is composed of Americans, Germans and Englishmen in that city.

The social side of Odd Fellowship is not to be ignored, but rather encouraged. Fraternal visits afford much enjoyment and pleasure and are a means of mingling together to exchange courtesy and greeting and form companionships that often last through life.

The pastor of the First M. E. church of Burlington, Ill., Rev. Dr. J. A. Lacas, was recently elected grand junior warden of the grand lodge of Illinois.

The Popular Odd Fellow says, "The salary of the grand treasurer of the grand lodge of Montana is $50 a year, and he is bonded for $20,000." In California, says the New Age, the grand treasurer gives a big bond and gets no salary at all.

MASONIC.

A Masonic Cathedral For Chicago.
Temple Chips.

Oriental consistory of Chicago is to build a Masonic cathedral that will cost $500,000. Already $250,000 of the sum to be invested in the new home for Oriental consistory has been subscribed. According to the present plans, the structure is to be an elaborate one, ranking second to none of the kind in this country. Oriental consistory now has a membership of more than 2,500, included in which are many of Chicago's most influential citizens.

Plans are on foot for an exhibit at the St. Louis world's fair to be known as "Solomon's temple." The cornerstone of the building will be laid by Masons, and the temple will be so constructed that it can be taken apart and exhibited in other cities.

James D. Richardson, who will retire from politics to devote his time to Masonry, will receive a salary of $10-000 a year and will be given a handsome residence in Washington.

Lu Lu temple of Philadelphia now has 3,432 members, and the receipts last year were nearly $31,000.

California commandery, No. 1, Knights Templars of San Francisco, is making extensive preparations for entertaining the Templars and their friends who will visit San Francisco in 1904.

The reports for the year just closed show that there are nearly 7,000 master Masons holding membership in the lodges in Washington, the net gain for the year being 454.

The fund for the establishment of a Masonic sanitarium for consumptives in New York city is growing rapidly.

Two well known Michigan Masons died recently, John J. Bardwell and Charles T. Hills. The latter was styled "the grand old man of Michigan Masonry."

John D. Brock of Oklahoma is the leading district deputy for the year 1902; he having secured 1,464 adoptions.
The second in rank was John Granham of Kansas, whose record is 1,103.

On Jan. 1 the order had a total membership of 704,035.
There were over 40,000 members in good standing in Nebraska at the beginning of the year.

The deputies in 1902 organized 1,045 new camps and secured the adoption of 67,263 members.

Minnesota had close to 50,000 members in good standing on Jan. 1.

Knights of Malta.

In March the representatives composed of the different past commanders of the commanderies in New York state will convene at Syracuse for the purpose of forming and instituting a grand commandery. This will be a progressive step and assure the order a large growth in membership.

The committee appointed by the supreme commandery at Portland, Me., has arranged details for a ladies' branch of the order. The order will be known as the Dames of Malta and will have the degrees. Everything is now in readiness to begin the work of organization.

The benefits derived by members of the Dames of Malta will be fraternity and sick and funeral benefits. The work is beautiful, all being founded on the Bible. The officers' titles are lady superior, lady excellent, lady matron, keeper of archives, assistant keeper of archives, baron, sister Rachel and trustees.

AN OLD FAVORITE

RAIN ON THE ROOF

By Coates Kinney

COATES KINNEY, poet and lawyer, was born at Kinney's Corners, N. Y., in 1826 and now resides at Kenia, O. He has been successively schoolteacher, journalist, soldier and lawyer and has served in the Ohio legislature. His best known poem, "Rain on the Roof," called "one of America's famous lyrics," was written a few years ago, but many prefer the old version, given below.

WHEN the humid shadows hover Over all the starry spheres,
And the melancholy darkness
Gently weeps in rainy tears,
What a bliss to press the pillow
Of a cottage-chamber bed,
And to listen to the patter
Of the soft rain overhead!

Every tinkle on the shingles
Has an echo in the heart;
And a thousand dreamy fancies
Into busy being start.
And a thousand recollections Weave their mists-blends into woe,
As I listen to the patter
Of the rain upon the roof.

Now in memory comes my mother,
As she used, in years ago,
To regard the falling of waters Ere she left them till the dawn;
So I hear her leaving for me,
As I list to this refrain:
Which is played upon the shingles
By the patter of the rain.

*Then my little seraph sister,
With the wings and waving hair,
And her star-eyed cherub brother—
A serene angelic pair—Guide around my wakeful pillow,
With their praise or mild reproof,
As I listen to the murmur
Of the soft rain on the roof.

And another comes, to thrill me
With her eyes' delicious blue;
And I mind not, musing on her,
That her heart was all untrue:
I remember but to love her With a passion kin to pain,
And my heart's quick pulses vibrate
To the patter of the rain.

Art hath naught of tone or cadence
That can work with such a spell
In the soul's mysterious fountains, Where the tears of rapture well,
As that melody of nature,
That subdued, subduing strain
Which is played upon the shingles
By the patter of the rain.
